Collect for the Feast of Luke the Evangelist

Almighty God, you called Luke the physician, whose praise is in the gospel, to be an evangelist and physician of the soul: by the grace of the Spirit and through the wholesome medicine of the gospel, give your Church the same love and power to heal; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Readings

The New Testament reading is taken from 2 Timothy 4.5-17

As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully. As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing. Do your best to come to me soon, for Demas, in love with this present world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica; Crescens has gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. Only Luke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, for he is useful in my ministry. I have sent Tychicus to Ephesus. When you come, bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas, also the books, and above all the parchments. Alexander the coppersmith did me great harm; the Lord will pay him back for his deeds. You also must beware of him, for he strongly opposed our message. At my first defence no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth.

This is the word of the Lord: Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel is taken from Luke 10.1-9 : Glory to you O Lord

After this the Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. He said to them, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest. Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, "Peace to this house!" And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you. Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house. Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; cure the sick who are there, and say to them, “The kingdom of God has come near to you.” This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you O Christ.

Intercessions

In the power of the Spirit and in union with Christ, let us pray to the Father. Heavenly Father, we thank you for the life, work and witness of Saint Luke. We pray that, like him, we may be ready to give a clear account of our faith to all who seek an understanding of the Gospel of Christ. We pray for church leaders and all Christians who are called to speak of their faith on television and on radio and those whose writing is published and widely read both within the church and beyond it. May the witness of your people bring light into the darkest places of the world.

Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer

Loving God, we pray for all who are weak, fearful and vulnerable in our world today and for all who are oppressed and treated with contempt. We ask that you give us and the leaders of the nations a compassionate understanding and the wisdom and willingness to support and care for your suffering children. We continue to pray for peaceful resolutions to the conflicts in Ukraine, Israel and Gaza.

Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer

God of hope and healing, your servant, Luke, tended the sick and understood human frailty. We pray for doctors, nurses and all who care today for those who are suffering in body, mind or spirit. We pray that your gentle and powerful love will surround them bringing light into their darkness and peace to calm their fears. We pray especially for everyone on our benefice prayer list.

Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer

Eternal God, we remember those who have died holding fast to their faith in Christ and those whose faith is known only to you. We thank you for the example of Luke and all your saints and pray that we may live each day in the hope and faith that you will grant us with them a share in your eternal kingdom.

Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer

Heavenly Father, we offer these prayers to you trusting in your readiness to hear us and in your compassionate loving kindness towards us and those for whom we have prayed.

Merciful father: accept these prayers for the sake of your Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.
